NO HOLDS BARRED

By M.A. SADANAND

Shakespeare, in one of his rare flashes of sanity, said that there is no logic in war, love or peace.

Perhaps there was no choice that struck his fuddled mind when General Kayani, for the first time, saw the Line of Control and he was so elated that he sent this pearl of military wisdom to his marauding troops at the Line and told the guys that sky was the limit for what they could do for the good old country.

“Don’t take prisoners but behead them though it is a bit messy”, he told them.

A Lieutenant General tremblingly posed the question whether such an act would not be tantamount to a travel back to the Middle Ages.

“What was wrong with the middle ages? Didn’t we conquer half the world with that kind of valour? Haven’t you seen the English movie in which the great Mongol, Ghengiz Khan, orders his henchman to tie the legs of an enemy to two horses which are whipped off in opposite directions to break the enemy into two?”

The Lieutenant General gave in to this superior knowledge on warfare. Otherwise Kayani would have probably cited the 1945 military wisdom of World War 2 hero Truman and his henchman, General Mc Arthur, for erasing three hundred thousand vermin with two atom bombs in Japan, as Truman had read Shakespeare’ dictum about lack of fairness in warfare.

It is a pity that our leaders don’t read but only pretend to lead. Does it matter whether you died with your boots on or your head undetached? Miss Delhi Rapee’s killers will perhaps plead, now that defending knights in legal armour have joined the scene, that “all is fair in love, also called rape in Delhi”. Let us not judge Shakespeare’s wisdom!

Rangarajapuram subway to be completed within 9 months

By Our Staff Reporter

According to a press release by Chennai Corporation, the work on the pedestrian and two-wheeler subway under the Rangarajapuram flyover in Kodambakkam will begin soon.

It will connect Mambalam with Kodambakkam.

The subway which will be 100 meters long will be built at a cost of Rs. 1.4 crores.

There used to be a manned railway crossing at this spot which was removed two years ago for the construction of the flyover.

A nearby resident said “People who take public transport from T. Nagar are forced to risk their lives by crossing the tracks as autos demand Rs. 30 to Rs. 50 to just cross over the flyover”.

The construction of the subway was delayed because Rangarajapuram flyover itself faced major delays and was opened only in October 2012. The new subway will allow two-way traffic of pedestrians and two-wheelers.

The construction is expected to be completed within nine months.

Couple held for selling 40 cars they took on rent

By Our Staff Reporter

Subramani (39) (employed as film production manager) and his wife Bhuvanewari (40), who conned a number of car owners by offering them lucrative rental deals and then selling off their vehicles, were arrested by the city police on Wednesday.

Police said that the couple who were residents of K. K. Nagar sold nearly 40 vehicles without the consent of their owners.

They managed to get a number of cars including high-end sedans on rent by placing attractive advertisements in dailies.

Subramani used to rent out these cars to film artists and production houses.

The couple sold 40 of these rented cars at cheaper rates with the promise to the buyers of producing the original documents and registering them at a later date.

If an owner asked them to return the car, they would tell that it was in use and would offer another car for the time being. Police said that the fraud came to light when one of the owners spotted his car in the city and on intercepting it, was told by the driver that he had purchased it secondhand recently.

He then lodged a complaint with Anna Salai Police Station. The couple were arrested and remanded to judicial custody.
