NO HOLDS BARRED

By M.A. SADANAND

ADVOCATE GENERAL JI

From twice Additional Advocate General, my good old friend A. L. Somayaji has climbed the Everest of the profession from the Aiyer & Dolia base camp to full Generalship of the army of Government lawyers in Amma's State to revive the memory of the golden era of stalwarts, before and after our freedom, to uphold the rule of law to rescue the majesty of law from the hackers, yes-men and political warts, without caring for the colour or the design of the flag of the ruler, even at the risk of riling some in the process.

There were a few who need not be named, lest I should tread on the corns of the unnamed ones who worshipped Honesty as the noblest quality in doing justice. In my 50 plus years in the High Court bar, I have been fortunate in spotting a few worthy Generals with the 'H' degree. Advocate General Somayaji will now fill the void because, in my evaluation, he holds, apart from the B.Com and B.L degrees acquired through sheer dint of hard work and character, the 'H' degree, obtained not from any fancy University, but soulfully, that bespeaks character without which lawyers are mere hirelings.

The real spotter of the talent who deserves the chorus of our praise is Chief Minister Jayalalitha who, having learnt from past experience not to plunk for cronies, had the courage to decide on the right man for the right job in her third innings on the throne. I raise my hat to you, Jaya!

Sewage water leakage affects Giri Street residents

Before

By Our Staff Reporter Following a report published in Mambalam Times last week that Giri Street residents are affected by debris dumped on roadside due to ongoing storm water drain work, Chennai Corporation workers removed the debris and cleared the road for free flow of traffic. However, the residents are facing a new problem due to the damage caused to the underground sewage pipes during digging. It has lead to leakage of sewage water which is getting accumulated in the trench thereby producing a foul smell, posing a potential health hazard and becoming a breeding ground for mosquitoes. Residents have also appealed for barricading the trench to prevent any accidents.
