Legendary actress Manorama passes away

Legendary actress, comedian and singer Manorama, affectionately referred to as 'Aachi', passed away on Oct. 10 at her residence in Neelakanta Metha Street (T. Nagar). She was 78, and had been a resident of T. Nagar for more than six decades.

She is survived by her son Boopathy. Film personalities, including her co-star in a number of movies J. Jayalalitha (Tamilnadu Chief Minister), political bigwigs and persons from all walks of life paid homage to the mortal remains of the deceased actor.

In a career spanning over 60 years, she had acted with leading actors including MGR, Sivaji Ganesan, NTR, Kamal Haasan, Rajinikanth, Nagesh, 'Cho' Ramaswamy, 'Thengai' Srinivasan as well as present-day actors. Her performances matched and sometimes even bettered that of the lead actors of her movies. Her first film was Malayitta Mangai produced by lyricist Kannadasan in 1958.

She was also a versatile singer and had worked with leading music directors. She was fondly called 'Aachi' after portraying the role of a Chettiar girl in the radio serial 'Kaappu Katti Chatram' in the 1960s. The serial was a big hit, and the Aachi title stuck.

She had acted in over 1,500 films, 1000 stage shows and sang hundreds of songs.

Her name was included in the Guinness Book of Records for acting in the maximum number of films. She was a past vice-president of South India Cine Artists Association. The veteran actor has rubbed shoulders with leading comedians spanning the 60 years including NSK, T.R. Ramachandran, Chandrababu, Thangavelu, Nagesh, Cho, Goundamani, Suruli Rajan, Vadivelu and Vivekh.

Five film personalities Annadurai, MGR, N.T. Rama Rao, J. Jayalalitha and M. Karunanidhi with whom she worked became chief ministers. The T. Nagar residence of Manorama, located close to Sivaji Ganesan's home, was full of tearful friends and fans from early in the morning. Film stars who came to pay floral tributes included Rajinikanth, Sarathkumar, 'Delhi' Ganesh, Karthik, Ilayaraja, Vairamuthu, S Ve Sekar, Ajith, Vijay, Vishal, Karthi, Vijayakumar, Bhagyaraj, Koundamani Parthiban, Raadhika, 'Kalaiyuli' Thanu, T. Rajender, Simbu, Vimal, Vikraman, and Pandiarajan.

NO HOLDS BARRED

By M.A. SADANAND
"MY LORD, ME LUD"

A hundred and sixty years after the country was reborn as an independent entity, the surge of democratic blood through the republican blood vessels has electrified the Indian approach to the ancient caveman's 'life for life' approach to the measure of justice to the guy in the dock accused of murder.

Half wits and nitwits, as lawyer and client respectively, booted the manila rope industry as the said rope was the sure fire execution rope before the U.S devised the electric chair, which would have been, if India had copied the ritual, the most ghoulish send off of a nitwit.

Anyway, Indian judges are less meaty and more brainy, resulting in exporting back the original Hyde, the manila product as the justice giver which, in India, is the judicial brain and mind.

Retired Chief Justice of India, P. Sathasivam, now Governor of Kerala, had in his reign for over two years as Chief of Justice of the Supreme Court, not sent any killer to swing. That example is good enough and no lessons need be learnt from other judicial brains. A good heart leads all other paraphernalia in life, especially in the contentious arena of the Court of Law. Law is the vehicle that transports one from the turf for a combined exercise of heart, mind and justice that led the contingent to the display area. The only policeman and prosecutor are but the hands of justice.

By the time the orders are to be pronounced, even the greatest and the most quizzical assessor of the evidence should have only a doubtless conviction that the poor mutt had committed the crime beyond the shadow of reasonable doubt, when he was not drunk and that he must recompense the country by working in the jail for a minimum fifty year stretch. If he dies in jail, it saves the country his keep. Nobody has a right to kill and all the laws that provide annihilation as a punishment, are stupid. If killing is bad, killing the killer is very bad. What, My Lord, Me Lud, ME LUD!!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Demand for alternate location by evicted roadside vendors unwarranted

Sir, This refers to the news item 'Siva Vishnu Temple Vendor Association erects banner against eviction outside temple entrance' published last week in Mambalam Times. The demand by the Association is unwarranted as they are occupying public place for carrying on their commercial business. They do not have titles to the public places they are occupying, so demanding an alternate location for carrying on business from the Corporation is unlawful. Notwithstanding their right to hawk/vend or anything contained in the Street Vendors' Act, they have no right to occupy the pavement/public places, impeding the very right of the public to use the same. The Corporation is to be blamed for the situation. This situation would not have arisen had it nipped the encroachments in the bud. Corporation had incurred Rs. 3 crores in building a complex in Pandy Bazaar to relocate some of the displaced vendors/hawkers from Usman Road and Pandy Bazaar. But most of these relocated vendors have rented out the space provided to them in the complex and are doing business again at the place from where they were displaced. The vendors/hawkers seem to think that they can occupy any place and ask the Corporation later to provide another accommodation if they are evicted. This misconception must be removed once and for all by cracking the whip. Otherwise, the encroachments will proliferate. — V.S. Jayaraman, 31, Motilal Street, T. Nagar

Draft 'Fire and Safety' guidelines for buildings by end of November

Sir, With respect to the public interest litigation filed by our Association, which sought directions from the authorities to ensure strict compliance of fire and safety regulations by commercial complexes on Usman Road/Ranganathan Street in T. Nagar, the hon'ble Madras Court has been examining counter-affidavits filed by various government bodies including CMDA, Chennai Corporation, Department of Fire and Rescue Services and also the respondent-commercial establishments numbering eleven in all for the past several months. A committee formed earlier under Justice S. Rajeswaran had recommended several amendments to Section 113C of the Tamilnadu Town and Country Planning Act which deals with fire and safety.

During the Court hearing on Oct. 13, the Tamilnadu Govt. submitted that Justice S. Rajeswaran's recommendations were ready and sought 10 weeks to frame the formal rules based on these recommendations. The judges said that 10 weeks was too long and directed the government to upload Justice Rajeswaran's recommendations on its website, invite comments, and submit draft guidelines to the court by the end of November. The next hearing has been scheduled on Dec. 17. — T. Nagar Residents' Welfare Association, 30, Rangan Street, T. Nagar

Educational assistance provided to visually impaired college students

Man robs motorcyclist at gunpoint, nabbed by cops in hours

A 50-year-old man robbed a motorbike rider at gunpoint on Jawaharlal Nehru Road in Ashok Nagar on the night of Oct. 14 but was nabbed within a few hours, police said. They seized a licensed gun and six bullets from the arrested man, Panneerselvam, noted down the license number and gave it to the police along with the description of the culprit. A few hours later, police arrested Panneerselvam near Vadalapalani.

Police said Panneerselvam, from Alangudi in Pudukottai, had earlier cheated several businessmen after promising them loans.

He would approach a businessman and say he could secure a huge loan at low interest.

While striking the deal, he would wave a gun in the victim's face and scoot with a large part of the loan. After helping Coimbatore resident Sundarajan secure a Rs. 50 crore loan, he asked him to come to Chennai and took Rs. 50,000 from him at gunpoint at a Ramapuram lodge. "We are verifying the complaint of Sundarajan. Though Panneerselvam had a licensed gun, he used it for robbery," an investigating officer said. Police are likely to cancel the license if it is found to be genuine.
