Baashyaam Constructions launches project 'Srinivasa' in West Mambalam

By Our Staff Reporter

Baashyaam Constructions Pvt. Ltd. (4th Floor, 87, G.N. Chetty Road, T. Nagar) has launched its mega residential project 'Srinivasa' at the location of the erstwhile Srinavasa Theater at the intersection of Reddy Kuppam Road, Dr. Govindan Road and Devanathan Colony in West Mambalam.

The Project Manager told Mambalam Times that the towering 18-storey+stilt apartment building will be a worthy heir to the much-celebrated Srinivasa Theatre that had screened films for more than sixty years.

He said that the design is a lavish homage to the origins of the neighbourhood, once known as Maha Vilva Ambalam (The place of Grand Vilva trees), and aims to re-introduce green lung spaces at different levels set against the backdrop of a sleek, contemporary architecture.

With prominence given to lung space, the project will feature 60-70% open spaces surrounded by lush and shady canopies of trees.

On offer are 3 BHK and 4 BHK apartments, adhering to vastu compliance and designed individually without common walls to ensure spacious rooms, maximum functionality, and natural ventilation from at least 3 sides.

The podium level will have an elevated common space for residents to unwind. Other highlights include a terrace clubhouse with rooftop gym and swimming pool offering breathtaking views, children's play area, landscaping, and stilt-plus-basement car parking.

To reduce the building's carbon footprint, common areas will be naturally ventilated and powered by rooftop solar panels. Water from the air-conditioning units and STP treated-grey water will be used for watering the plants.

The launch price is Rs. 15,499 per sq.ft. For more details and bookings, call 98404 77777.

Empowering underprivileged women through gardening

By Our Staff Reporter

To empower underprivileged women with the skill of gardening, Chennai Resilience Centre (CRC) and Okapi Research and Advisory have jointly launched the 'Madras Mali' programme.

The program aims to green the city while providing an opportunity for women from low-income households to engage in livelihoods.

Under the programme, women are trained in everything from preparing the soil, removing weeds, adding biopesticides and biofertilizers to composting.

"Nearly 250 women from self-help groups registered with Tamil Nadu Urban Livelihood Mission (TNULM) have been trained in tending both vegetable and flower gardens.

CRC is a philanthropic organisation that works mostly with the government. "We hand out registered garden kits, each of which contains five grow bags, soil, and seeds, for both vegetables and greens," Krishna Mohan (Chief Resilience Officer, CRC) said.

45-year-old V. Prabha (resident of Jafferkanpet) did not know how to pot a plant till recently. Today, trained in gardening under the 'Madras Mali' programme, she is much in demand, working on gardens in homes across T. Nagar, Adyar and Besant Nagar.

I earn an average of Rs. 850 per day working for around 7 hours, she said.

To book a Madras Mali to tend to your garden, WhatsApp 91765 88007.

Held for murdering passenger at Saidapet Station

By Our Staff Reporter

A 25-year-old man was arrested on charge of murdering a 50-year-old man at night on Sept. 14 at Saidapet railway station.

The victim, Ramesh (resident of T. Nagar), a former stuntman in films, died of head injuries later in the night at Royapettah Government Hospital.

Initially, police registered a case of accidental death from a fall.

Later, when the postmortem revealed that the wounds were inconsistent with a fall, police analysed CCTV footages and found that Ramesh had been attacked. The case was then altered to murder.

Following investigation, Mambalam police identified the culprit as K. Mohamed Riyaz (resident of Gandhi Nagar, Koyambedu).

Police said that when Ramesh was waiting at the platform in Saidapet station, Riyaz, who was drunk, tried to grab his phone.

When Ramesh resisted, Riyaz brutally assaulted him and fled the spot.

Ramesh, who suffered severe head injuries in the attack, was admitted by Railway police in Royapettah Government Hospital, where he died a few hours later.

Riyaz has been remanded in judicial custody.

Siblings held for cheating investors of Rs. 3.71 crores

The EOW (Economic Offences Wing) of Tamilnadu police has arrested two women—siblings, on charge of swindling Rs 3.71 crores from the public under the guise of getting them plots of land.

The police identified the sisters as Amshaveni, an advocate, and her sister, Sree Lakshmi.

The duo ran Lakshmi Classic Homes Private Limited in T. Nagar between 2019 and 2021.

During this period, the women collected money from the public by falsely promising residential plots at low rates in return for the investment in their firm. Investigations revealed that Rs 3.71 crores was collected from 26 investors and later misappropriated without allotting any plots.

Investors cheated by this firm can lodge complaint with the Economic Offences Wing (26P6, Jaffarkhanpet, Ashok Nagar) or call 18005990050 / 044-22504332.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Water contamination problem resolved after 3 months

Sir, The residents of Bala-krishna Mudali Street (West Mambalam) gave a sigh of relief after the metro water contamination problem, going on for over 3 months, got resolved last week. The supply of piped drinking water has resumed. I thank Councillor Uma Anandan for her assistance, and Metrowater employees Umashankar (Assistant Engineer) and Prakash for their efforts in resolving the issue.

For the past three months, the residents, who had been grappling with foul-smelling, discoloured drinking water, had to buy water through tankers or rely on borewell water for their domestic purposes. Sheela Lakshminarayanan, West Mambalam

A bitter experience in Natesan Park

Sir, I am a 61-year-old resident of T. Nagar.

I regularly visit Dr. Natesan Park (T. Nagar) and use the exercising equipment installed there. On Sept. 13, I had a bitter experience while I was exercising on the Air Walker.

While I was exercising on the Air Walker, a man in his 50s approached, and ordered me to get down from the walker immediately as he wanted to use it. When I requested him to wait a few minutes for me to finish, he acted in a rude manner and started to use abusive words.

Instead of escalating the issue, I got down from the apparatus and requested him not use such derogatory words, especially with an elderly woman, and moved on to the next equipment. When another gentleman intervened, he was equally rude with him and continued throwing abuses. He further added that he is an employee of Chennai Corporation, and is privileged to use all the equipment/facilities in the park.

I wonder if the government has given the rights for the department employees to use foul language, their position and baritone to threaten people in public places?

I wish that person would understand the mindset of a 61-year-old lady after being insulted in the public and mend his ways. In the same breadth I thank the unknown Samaritan who intervened. Bhuvanewari Raghavan, T. Nagar
