Online discussion on civic issues with election candidates

By Our Staff Reporter

With Anna Nagar constituency heading for a four-cornered contest in this Assembly election, the Federation of Anna Nagar Residents' Associations (FOARA) brought the candidates S. Gokula Indira (AIADMK), C. Shankar (NTK), and V.K. Ramkumar (TVK) on an online platform on April 14 to discuss their civic demands and poll promises.

The Federation presented a charter of demands to address the increasing stress on infrastructure and mobility in Anna Nagar.

R. Sukumar (President, FOARA) said that the demands included upgradation of old sewer lines, strict enforcement of no-vending zones to prevent encroachment, ear-marking of parking zones, construction of multi-level car parking facilities and last-mile connectivity from metro stations.

He said that the candidates responded to the questions in a positive manner.

Eligible senior citizens vote at home

By Our Staff Reporter

Voters above 85 and disabled persons, who had opted for postal ballot by filling Form 12D, voted at their homes in a special campaign conducted by Election Commission on April 16, 17 and 18.

Polling teams (each comprising of 4 officials, a videographer and a policeman) visited the residences of eligible voters to collect their votes as per the schedule prepared by the Returning Officers.

On April 17, a team visited the house of 91-year-old Florence Mary (resident of 19/45, 8th Cross Street West, Shenoy Nagar) to collect her vote.

Similarly, a team visited the residence of 86-year-old Leela Chockalingam (W 128, B Sector, Anna Nagar Western Extension) and four others in B Sector to collect their votes.

An official said that 845 residents had opted for postal ballot in Anna Nagar constituency, and 430 residents in Villivakkam constituency.

Dummy voting machines seized

Chessman Institute offers 8 classes for Rs. 1,999

By Our Staff Reporter

The newly opened Chessman Institute (995P, 2nd Floor, Diamond Plaza, 12th Main Road, 2nd Avenue, Anna Nagar) offers chess coaching at basic, intermediary and advanced levels.

Children above 3 years can enrol for the classes.

It offers 8 classes at discounted price of Rs. 1,999, and first 20 students will get a free premium quality chess-board.

A senior coach told Anna Nagar Times that under its structured curriculum, beginners can reach the intermediate level within 2 months.

It employs FIDE-rated coaches and training is conducted in small batches to ensure individual attention.

He said that the beginners are taught basics to build a strong foundation, and at intermediate level, the focus shifts to tactics, patterns and game analysis.

Tournaments are conducted weekly and monthly to assess progress.

Its contact numbers are 86103 85940 and 63801 84813.

Migratory birds flock to Tower Park

By Our Staff Reporter

A flock of migratory birds have found a temporary habitat on the high trees of Tower Park (Anna Nagar).

Their varied noises from chirping to croaks and nasal squeals and the heavy flapping of wings are attracting visitors, with some straining their eyes to catch a glimpse of these birds perched on the high branches.

Visitors said that they have spotted pond herons, little egrets and cormorants among them.

The pond in the park provides them a source of food.

In addition, two ducks have made the pond in Tower Park their home along with a creep of tortoises.

In the morning on April 15, four tortoises were seen basking in the sun atop the trunk of an uprooted tree in the pond.

Spot in Kavimani Saalai caves in

By Our Staff Reporter

A 4-foot-wide circular portion of the road, close to the median, caved in on April 1 on Kavimani Saalai (Mogappair West).

Barricades have been placed around it to caution motorists.
