LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Appeal to cut low-lying branches

Sir, There is an overgrowth of branches of the trees growing adjoining the pavement of Ambattur Estate Road (opposite Mangal Eri Park, Mogappair). Their low-lying branches are extending into the pavement causing obstruction to pedestrians.

I appeal to Chennai Corporation to prune the low-lying branches. M. Murugesan, 88, Asalathamman Koil Street, Mogappair.

Open drain not closed for over 3 months

Sir, The portion of the storm water drain in front of AP 825 in G Block 1st Street, Anna Nagar is lying open for the past 3 months.

I am running a salon in the premises for more than 20 years.

Though I have placed an iron platform to cross the drain to enter and leave the salon, my customers are inconvenienced.

In spite of complaints, the contractor appointed by Chennai Corporation is not closing the drain. I appeal to Chennai Corporation to take immediate action. Shankar, AP 825, Anna Nagar.

Vendors block pavement on Ambattur Estate Road

Sir, Vegetable, fruit and other vendors have blocked the pavement and the entire road margin for a stretch of about 200 meters on Ambattur Estate Road (near Bazaar Road junction, Mogappair).

Some vendors have also erected temporary structures, hindering pedestrians and the free movement of vehicles. With many schools in the vicinity, there is traffic congestion on the stretch during school opening and closing hours, and also during peak traffic hours.

Nearby pedestrians like me are put to hardship.

I appeal to Chennai Corporation to evict the encroachments early. P. Sharadha, Seethakathi Saalai, off Bazaar Road, Mogappair.
