LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Pavement blocked outside Corporation Park

Sir, The pavement abutting the compound wall of Corporation Park (Park Road, adjacent to ONGC Quarters, Anna Nagar Western Extension) is blocked by push carts, cooking equipment and damaged household items. As they are causing hindrance to park visitors and nearby residents, I appeal to Corporation to remove the encroachments. N. Manikandan Soundarya Colony, Anna Nagar Western Extension.

Commercial vehicles parked on Pulla Avenue

Sir, A long stretch of Pulla Avenue (near East Park Road junction, outside Thiru Vi Ka Park, Shenoy Nagar) is being misused for parking vans and other commercial vehicles, causing hindrance to park visitors as they are not able to park their vehicles.

I appeal to traffic police to take suitable action. R. Shankarvasan, 1st Main Road East, Shenoy Nagar.

Protruding rods unsafe for pedestrians

Sir, I am a resident of Z Block (5th Avenue, Anna Nagar).

At night on Oct. 18, I had a narrow escape while crossing 4th Avenue (near 5th Avenue junction, Anna Nagar).

In the middle of 4th Avenue, the remains of 4 iron rods from a dismantled concrete median are protruding precariously by about 2 inches.

Due to poor visibility, I tripped on one of the rods and fell on the road, but escaped with bruises and suffered no major injury. I have seen similar protruding rods on pavements and road margins at several places in Anna Nagar. I appeal to Chennai Corporation to cut and remove these protruding rods to prevent untoward incidents. P. Sai Sudharsan, Z Block 10th Street, Anna Nagar.

Space near police station converted into a garbage dump

Sir, A stretch of Seethakathi Salai adjoining the compound wall of Tamilnadu Housing Board Quarters (between JJ Nagar police station and JJ Nagar Fire Station, Mogappair East) has become garbage dump.

A nearby resident said that garbage collected from nearby areas is dumped daily on the stretch.

Though four garbage bins are kept at the spot, it is insufficient for the amount of waste dumped daily at the spot.

I appeal to Chennai Corporation to clear the garbage from the bins at least twice a day to prevent this overflow. R. Sunder, 33/18, Seethakathi Salai, Mogappair East.

Appeal to widen Union Road

Sir, Chennai Corporation built two 4-lane bridges over Cooum river to link Poonamallee High Road with Mogappair to reduce travel time for the residents.

But Union Road (Nolambur), which is the approach road, remains narrow due to encroachments and several unfinished civic works, leading to heavy traffic jam during peak hours. On some stretches, the road is only 3 feet wide, and in bad condition.

I appeal to Chennai Corporation to clear the encroachments and widen the road early. P.S. Yuvaraj, Vignesh Nagar Main Road, off Union Road, Nolambur, Mogappair.

Appeal to relay 2nd Main Road

Sir, Following complaints, Chennai Corporation had undertaken patch work on 2nd Main Road (F Block, Anna Nagar East) at night on Oct. 26.

The work has been done in a shoddy manner as the patch works are uneven and pose danger to motorists.

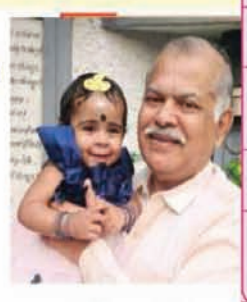

The poorly-done patch works are likely to get washed away by rains.

The road had got damaged in August when Corporation had widened the storm water drain. I appeal to Chennai Corporation to relay the road immediately. R. Priya Anand, F Block 9th Street, off 2nd Main Road, Anna Nagar East

Flamingos flock Korattur Lake

By Our Staff Reporter

Greater Flamingos, the largest and the most widespread species of the flamingo family, have made a spectacular return to the brimming Korattur Lake after a gap of 8 years.

Driven by recent monsoon rains that replenished the lake and improved its overall water environment, these vibrant pink migratory birds have travelled all the way from Gujarat to roost and feed on the lake's rich supply of small fish, insects, and nutrients.

Conservationists said that though flamingos commonly migrate to Pulicat Lake and Pallikaranai Marsh during winter, their reappearance at Korattur Lake after a gap of eight years is an eye candy for birdwatchers.

Court orders Corporation to take over Mogappair cemetery

By Our Staff Reporter

The Madras High Court on Nov. 2 directed Tamilnadu Government to transfer the 29.60-ground cemetery in Golden George Nagar (Mogappair West) to Chennai Corporation within six months, following allegations that a private individual was collecting up to Rs. 1 lakh to allow burials in the cemetery.

In his petition, S. Michael Pandian (resident of Nolambur) stated that the land was earmarked and had been in use for burial and related ceremonies of Christians for the past 40 years, and that A. Devaneedhi, who had some years back been entrusted with maintaining the burial ground, was now demanding/collecting Rs. 1 lakh for burials.

After hearing the petition, Chief Justice S.A. Dharmadhikari and Justice G. Arul Murugan directed the authorities to transfer the property to Corporation within six months, and also authorised the Corporation to take action against anyone interfering with its possession of the property or attempting to collect money from those using the facility.

B. R. Shivaji passes away

By Our Staff Reporter

B. R. Shivaji, former Associate Editor of our sister publication Mambalam Times, passed away in Cochin on Oct. 31. He was 84.

Shivaji had joined Mambalam Times as Associate Editor at its very inception in 1994 and continued for 18 years till his retirement in 2012.

He shaped Mambalam Times as a well-respected neighbourhood newspaper by introducing many attractive and innovative features. He was a stickler for accuracy and trained an able set of reporting and editorial staff.

Shivaji also functioned as Associate Editor of Anna Nagar Times during the months when its Editor had gone abroad.

Earlier Shivaji had a long innings in Indian Express, Chennai, from which he had retired from the coveted position of News Editor.

According to K. S. Mahadevan, one of his senior colleagues in Indian Express, "Shivaji was the blue-eyed boy of C P Seshadrii (Senior Editor of Indian Express news desk), and was always a stickler for fellowship at work. His zeal and humour were infectious. He was the go-to man for problem solving for his colleagues. Unassuming but quietly efficient, he was an asset to the news desk".

In its tribute, Indian Express said, "Shivaji's colleagues and junior colleagues recall him as a desk man who was known for his editing skills apart from managing the team of journalists who worked under his guidance. He enjoyed the reputation of handling the pages deftly till the late night edition, and was highly regarded by his team".

Shivaji is survived by his wife Pushpa, son Wing Commander Sai Prasad, daughter-in-law Divya, granddaughter Manasvini and younger brother Vijay Bobby.

Do's and dont's for safe handling of crackers

During Deepavali celebrations children get injured due to careless handling of fireworks. Parents are indirectly responsible for these accidents as they fail to educate and guide the children on the correct ways of handling them.

Simple rules of safety are:

Don't light crackers inside the house, or light candles and oil lamps near curtains or any other combustible material.

Hold sparklers away from the body.

Light rockets pointing them straight up.

Never light fireworks from balconies or near buildings: use open grounds.

Don't bend over fireworks while lighting them: light them from the side.

Don't wear long, loose, thin flowing dresses while playing with fireworks.

Never put fireworks in pockets.

Never light fireworks under confinement in a metal container.

Never light a flower pot by holding it in hand.

Never store fireworks or unpack them near a flame or a heat source.

Never return to a firework once lit – it may explode in your face.

Pour water over burns and go to a doctor. Don't apply ointment, butter or any oily substance.

Show concern for infants, the aged and the sick. Don't light loud crackers near them.

This kitten awaits a kind home

By A. Chockalingam

A 10-day-old kitten's rear left leg got crushed in an accident in W Block 3rd Street (Anna Nagar Western Extension) three months back.

When it was in a state of extreme distress with no strength to move and its life was slowly ebbing away, my kind hearted neighbour Kandasami and his family (residents of W 134, Anna Nagar Western Extension) came to its rescue.

It was admitted in a private clinic where, in an emergency surgery, its crushed leg was amputated.

The kitten underwent treatment for over a month under the watchful and kind care of the family, and slowly learnt to move around on three legs.

Three months have since passed, and it is now in good heath, having been fully treated, vaccinated and also immunized.

The family is now looking for a genuine animal lover who is willing to adopt this adorable kitten and give her a caring home. Kandasamy's phone number is 78679 35859.
